Conditions of Sale

1. Any bid which is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneer, if, in his judgment, such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

2. The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall either decide the same or put up for re-sale the lot so in dispute.

3. Payment shall be made of all or such part of the purchase money as may be required, and the names and addresses of the purchasers shall be given immediately on the sale of every lot, in default of which the lot so purchased shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

Payment of that part of the purchase money not made at the time of sale, shall be made within ten days thereafter, in default of which the undersigned may either continue to hold the lots at the risk of the purchaser and take such action as may be necessary for the enforcement of the sale, or may at public or private sale, and without other than this notice, re-sell the lots for the benefit of such purchaser, and the deficiency (if any) arising from such re-sale, shall be a charge against such purchaser.

4. Delivery of any purchase will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.

Deliveries will be made on sales days between the hours of 9 A. M. and 1 P. M., and on other days—except holidays—between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 P. M.

Delivery of any purchase will be made only at the American Art Galleries, or other place of sale, as the case may be, and only on presenting the bill of purchase.

Delivery may be made, at the discretion of the Association, of any purchase during the session of the sale at which it was sold.

5. Shipping, boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, and will not be performed by the Association for purchasers. The Association will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

6. Storage of any purchase shall be at the sole risk of the purchaser. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter, while the Association will exercise due caution in caring for and delivering such purchase, it will not hold itself responsible if such purchase be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.

Storage charges will be made upon all purchases not removed within ten days from the date of the sale thereof.

7. Guarantee is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness or authenticity of any lot, and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing, or any imperfection not noted. Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, after which it is sold "as is" and without recourse.

The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly, and will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued, and, in its judgment, may either sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert who thereby would become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without proper foundation.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Buying or bidding by the Association for responsible parties on orders transmitted to it by mail, telegraph or telephone, will be faithfully attended to without charge or commission. Any purchase so made will be subject to the above Conditions of Sale, which cannot in any manner be modified. The Association, however, in the event of making a purchase of a lot consisting of one or more books for a purchaser who has not, through himself or his agent, been present at the exhibition or sale, will permit such lot to be returned within ten days from the date of sale, and the purchase money will be returned, if the lot in any material manner differs from its catalogue description.

Orders for execution by the Association should be written and given with such plainness as to leave no room for misunderstanding. Not only should the lot number be given, but also the title, and bids should be stated to be so much for the lot, and when the lot consists of one or more volumes of books or objects of art, the bid per volume or piece should also be stated. If the one transmitting the order is unknown to the Association, a deposit should be sent or reference submitted. Shipping directions should also be given.

Priced copies of the catalogue of any sale, or any session thereof, will be furnished by the Association at a reasonable charge.

61. ART. [Reynolds (Sir Joshua).] A Collection of Discourses, delivered at the Royal Academy, by the President, at the Opening of the Academy in 1769 and before the Students at the Distribution of the Prizes, from 1769 to 1790. Together, 15 Discourses. ALL ORIGINAL EDITIONS. Bound in one vol. 4to, half green morocco, gilt back and top, BY RIVIÈRE. London, 1769-1791

UNIQUE ASSOCIATION ITEM, AND A COMPLETE SERIES OF SIR JOSHUA REYNOLDS' DISCOURSES delivered before the Royal Academy, from the time of his taking office as first president of the academy until his last discourse delivered before the students in 1790.

HORACE WALPOLE'S OWN COPIES OF SEVEN OF THE DISCOURSES, WITH THE PRESENTATION INSCRIPTION TO HIM, BY THE AUTHOR. OF THE REMAINING DISCOURSES, ALL BUT ONE HAVE PRESENTATION INSCRIPTION IN THE HANDWRITING OF REYNOLDS, AND ONE HAS A VERY INTERESTING AUTOGRAPH INSCRIPTION REGARDING REYNOLDS AND HIS ART, BY WALPOLE.

Reynolds's literary works consist mainly of these Discourses, which probably received some polish from Johnson, Burke, Malone and others before they were published. Perhaps the best known of them is the Discourse for 1788, in which he pronounced his fine and generous tribute to the memory of Gainsborough. They contain advices to Students which are of permanent value, they have been frequently reprinted, and cannot be neglected by any student of art criticism. For these Discourses, the author received from the Empress of Russia a gold snuff-box, adorned with her profile in bas-relief, set in diamonds.

THE PRESENT SERIES FORMS A COMPLETE COLLECTION OF THE ORIGINAL ISSUES, as follows, the inscription in each case being in the handwriting of Reynolds,—

A DISCOURSE, delivered at the Opening of the Royal Academy, January 2, 1769.

Inscription on title,—"From the Author."

A DISCOURSE, delivered to the Students . . . on the Distribution of the Prizes, December 11, 1769.

Inscription on fly-leaf,—"To the Honble Horace Walpole from the Author."

A DISCOURSE, delivered to the Students . . . on the Distribution of the Prizes, December 14, 1770.

Inscription on half-title,—"From the Auth(or)." The last two letters cut off.

A DISCOURSE, delivered to the Students . . . on the Distribution of the Prizes, December 10, 1771.

Inscription on half-title,—"Jerningham Esqr from the Author."

A DISCOURSE, delivered to the Students . . . on the Distribution of the Prizes, December 10, 1772.

Inscription on title,—"To the Honble Mr. Beauclerc from the Author."

A DISCOURSE, delivered to the Students . . . on the Distribution of the Prizes, Dec. the 10th, 1774.

Inscription on fly-leaf,—"Mr. Thrale from the Author."

A DISCOURSE, delivered to the Students . . . on the Distribution of the Prizes, December 10, 1776.

Inscription on half-title,—"To the Honble Mr. H. Walpole from the Author."

A DISCOURSE, delivered to the Students . . . on the Distribution of the Prizes, December 10, 1778.

Inscription on half-title,—"Honble Horace Walpole from the Author."

A DISCOURSE, delivered at the Opening of the Royal Academy, October 16, 1780.

Inscription on half-title,—“Mr. Walpole from the Author.”

A DISCOURSE, delivered to the Students . . . on the Distribution of the Prizes, December 10, 1782.

Inscription on half-title,—“Honble Horace Walpole from the Author.”

ALSO, A SIX-LINE AUTOGRAPH INSCRIPTION BY HORACE WALPOLE, relative to this work and Reynolds's art. Reads as follows,—

“This Discourse is a tacit account of his own object in Painting, which was general effect; but ought not to be a general Rule, for he neglected the other parts. His flesh does not, like Titians, represent the various tints of flesh; nor his Draperies, like Vandyks, represent velvet, sateen, silk or cloth. His hands are generally as ill drawn as coloured, and even in effect his pictures that were most striking the first year, were commonly faded the next.”

A DISCOURSE, delivered to the Students . . . on the Distribution of the Prizes, December 10, 1784.

A DISCOURSE, delivered to the Students . . . on the Distribution of the Prizes, December 11, 1786.

Inscription on half-title,—“from the Author.”

A DISCOURSE, delivered to the Students . . . on the Distribution of the Prizes, Dec. 10th, 1788.

Inscription on half-title,—“Honble Horace Walpole from the Author.”

A DISCOURSE, delivered to the Students . . . on the Distribution of the Prizes, Dec. 10, 1790.

Inscription on half-title,—“Honble Horace Walpole from the Author.”

OBSERVATIONS on the Discourses delivered at the Royal Academy. Addressed to the President. 1774.

keeping with Henley's original scheme, a few glossarial and explanatory notes.

Contains all the forty separate plays, which were also issued in separate volume form.

"To present our Shakespeare in stately yet convenient form is the prime object of those responsible for this EDINBURGH FOLIO. The type is suited to the feeblest eye; there is no mass of commentary to mar the plain simplicity of the general design; such notes as are given are mainly glossarial, and are set forth unobtrusively at the page's foot; the text of the greatest English book is shown in such a completeness of clarity as the Editor has been able to achieve. And in this sense at least it is hoped that here is, pre-eminently, THE SHAKESPEARE of all them that love, not to dispute about readings but, to read."—ADVERTISEMENT.
